ST. ANNE

EXHORTATION

said by the priest, turning to the people.

Dearest beloved brethren, the Scripture moveth us in sundry places to acknowledge and confess our manifold sins and wickedness; and that we should not dissemble nor cloke them before the face of Almighty God our heavenly Father; but confess them with an humble, lowly, penitent, and obedient heart; to the end that we may obtain forgiveness of the same, by his infinite goodness and mercy.

And although we ought at all times humbly to acknowledge our sins before God; yet ought we most chiefly so to do, when we assemble and meet together to render thanks for the great benefits that we have received at his hands, to set forth his most worthy praise, to hear his most holy Word, and to ask those things which are requisite and necessary, as well for the body as the soul.

Wherefore I pray and beseech you, as many as are here present, to accompany me with a pure heart and humble voice unto the throne of the heavenly grace.

GENERAL CONFESSION

to be said of the whole congregation with the priest, all kneeling.

Almighty and most merciful Father, We have erred and strayed from thy ways like lost sheep, We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts, We have offended against thy holy laws, We have left undone those things which we ought to have done, And we have done those things which we ought not to have done; And there is no health in us. But thou, O LORD, have mercy upon us, miserable offenders. Spare thou them, O God, which confess their faults. Restore thou them that are penitent; According to thy promises declared unto mankind in Christ Jesu our LORD. And grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake, That we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, To the glory of thy holy Name. Amen.

ABSOLUTION

to be said by the priest alone, standing, the people still kneeling.

Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who desireth not the death of a sinner, but rather that he may turn from his wickedness, and live, hath given power and commandment to his Ministers, to declare and pronounce to his people, being penitent, the Absolution and Remission of their sins.

He pardoneth and absolveth all them that truly repent and unfeignedly believe his holy Gospel.

Wherefore we beseech him to grant us true repentance and his Holy Spirit, that those things may please him which we do at this present, and that the rest of our life hereafter may be pure and holy; so that at the last we may come to his eternal joy; through Jesus Christ our LORD. Amen.

LORD'S PRAYER

the people repeating it with the priest.

Our Father who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us; And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory,
For ever and ever. Amen.

PRECES

*to be sung by the priest and people,
all standing*

O LORD, open thou our lips

And our mouth shall show forth thy praise.

O God, make speed to save us.

O LORD, make haste to help us.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

Praise ye the Lord.

The LORD's Name be praised.

PSALM
*sung by the choir,
the congregation being seated*

143 Domine, exaudi.
(Coverdale)

Chant: F.A.J. Hervey (1846–1910)

Hear my prayer, O Lord, and consider my desire: hearken unto me for thy truth and righteousness' sake.
2 And enter not into judgement with thy servant; for in thy sight shall no man living be justified.
3 For the enemy hath persecuted my soul; he hath smitten my life down to the ground: he hath laid me in the darkness, as the men that have been long dead.
4 Therefore is my spirit vexed within me, and my heart within me is desolate.
5 Yet do I remember the time past; I muse upon all thy works: yea, I exercise myself in the works of thy hands.
6 I stretch forth my hands unto thee: my soul gaspeth unto thee as a thirsty land.
7 Hear me, O Lord, and that soon, for my spirit waxeth faint: hide not thy face from me, lest I be like unto them that go down into the pit.
8 O let me hear thy loving-kindness betimes in the morning, for in thee is my trust: shew thou me the way that I should walk in, for I lift up my soul unto thee.
9 Deliver me, O Lord, from mine enemies; for I flee unto thee to hide me.
10 Teach me to do the thing that pleaseth thee, for thou art my God: let thy loving Spirit lead me forth into the land of righteousness.
11 Quicken me, O Lord, for thy Name's sake; and for thy righteousness' sake bring my soul out of trouble.
12 And of thy goodness slay mine enemies, and destroy all them that vex my soul; for I am thy servant.
Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.
As it was in the beginning is now and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

FIRST LESSON

Proverbs 25.11–end

Lector: The First Lesson is written in the Book of Proverbs, the 25th chapter, beginning at the 11th verse.

A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in a setting of silver. ¹²Like a gold ring or an ornament of gold is a wise rebuke to a listening ear. ¹³Like the cold of snow in the time of harvest are faithful messengers to those who send them; they refresh the spirit of their masters. ¹⁴Like clouds and wind without rain is one who boasts of a gift never given. ¹⁵With patience a ruler may be persuaded, and a soft tongue can break bones. ¹⁶If you have found honey, eat only enough for you, or else, having too much, you will vomit it. ¹⁷Let your foot be seldom in your neighbour's house, otherwise the neighbour will become weary of you and hate you. ¹⁸Like a war club, a sword, or a sharp arrow is one who bears false witness against a neighbour. ¹⁹Like a bad tooth or a lame foot is trust in a faithless person in time of trouble.

²⁰Like vinegar on a wound is one who sings songs to a heavy heart. Like a moth in clothing or a worm in wood, sorrow gnaws at the human heart. ²¹If your enemies are hungry, give them bread to eat; and if they are thirsty, give them water to drink; ²²for you will heap coals of fire on their heads, and the Lord will reward you. ²³The north wind produces rain, and a backbiting tongue, angry looks. ²⁴It is better to live in a corner of the housetop than in a house shared with a contentious wife. ²⁵Like cold water to a thirsty soul, so is good news from a far country. ²⁶Like a muddied spring or a polluted fountain are the righteous who give way before the wicked. ²⁷It is not good to eat much honey, or to seek honour on top of honour. ²⁸Like a city breached, without walls, is one who lacks self-control.

SECOND LESSON St. Luke 15.1-10

the congregation is seated

Lector: The Second Lesson is written in the Gospel according to St. Luke, the 15th chapter, beginning at the first verse.

Now all the tax-collectors and sinners were coming near to listen to him. ²And the Pharisees and the scribes were grumbling and saying, "This fellow welcomes sinners and eats with them." ³So he told them this parable: ⁴"Which one of you, having a hundred sheep and losing one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness and go after the one that is lost until he finds it? ⁵When he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders and rejoices. ⁶And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and neighbours, saying to them, "Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep that was lost." ⁷Just so, I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous people who need no repentance. ⁸Or what woman having ten silver coins, if she loses one of them, does not light a lamp, sweep the house, and search carefully until she finds it? ⁹When she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbours, saying, "Rejoice with me, for I have found the coin that I had lost." ¹⁰Just so, I tell you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents.'

Finally we commend to thy fatherly goodness all those, who are any ways afflicted or distressed in mind, body, or estate; especially those on our Prayer lists, that it may please thee to comfort and relieve them, according to their several necessities, giving them patience under their sufferings, and a happy issue out of all their afflictions.
