Tuesday Hospitality -

The Big Breakfast for Tuesday Hospitality was a wonderful time for all who attended. We served a hot breakfast of eggs, sausages, bacon, and English muffins, accompanied by juice, cereals, oranges, yogurt, breads, and muffins. Our patrons each received a brand new pair of socks plus a selection of mittens, hats, and scarves. We also handed out assorted items such as foodstuffs, laundry detergent, tea and coffee, toilet paper, and shortbread cookies.

The patrons were so very grateful for all that our parish does for them and one said, "I think I have died and gone to heaven as I have never seen so much food."

None of this could have been accomplished without the help of all our volunteers in the kitchen and all the donations from everyone. Thank you.

Church Calendars -

2017 church calendars are available for purchase in the parish office.

Winged Ox -

The Christmas issue of the Winged Ox is available today at the back of the church.

Bake Sale -

Thank you very much to all who have supported Gabriella Lampman in the bake sales for the El Salvador mission trip. Thanks to your generosity, the four bake sales brought in $600.00. If you still wish to contribute or to see her updates, you can go to <https://www.youcaring.com/gabriellalampman-694859>. There are no more bake sales planned before Christmas.

Please include the following people in your prayers:
